BILLUPS RETURNS.

The Cordell Senator Says It Looks Good In Indiana.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 6.—Senator Richard A. Billups of Cordell, noted as the author of the Oklahoma prohibition law, returned yesterday from a tour of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, where he has been making speeches under the direction of the democratic national campaign committee. He was in Oklahoma City last night on his way home and told an interesting story of his visit in the doubtful states.

"No, not doubtful," he said, "not all of them, at any rate. Indiana is safe for Bryan; there is no longer any doubt about it. Democracy is making great inroads into the republican majorities of Illinois and Iowa. Bryan has an excellent chance to win; in fact, he has already won."

Senator Billups drew large crowds at all his speaking places.

"Of course, the rank and file knew nothing of me, but the very fact that I was from Oklahoma, made me a drawing card," he said. "I found a great interest manifested in this state."

"About the first thing they want to know about is our bank guaranty law. Interest is general in this measure. Then they ask about our initiative and referendum law and our prohibition law. They are envious of us, many of those people are; we are going too fast for them."

"Governor Haskell is stronger today than he was before the attacks were made upon him. Democrats in the states I visited are almost in a unit in their support of him and many republicans openly denounce the president."

Senator Billups next week takes the stump in Oklahoma in behalf of the state dispensary law.

Norman E. Mack III.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 6.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the democratic national committee, collapsed tonight as a result of fatigue and a severe cold, and is under the care of a physician and a trained nurse.

The illness of Mr. Mack came suddenly, and alarmed fellow members of the democratic committee. Dr. Hammond of the Auditorium Hotel was summoned, and said Mr. Mack is suffering from overwork and nervous exhaustion. He does not believe the illness to be a serious one, and intimated the patient will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Chairman Mack arrived in Chicago from New York yesterday afternoon.

BRYAN HITTING HARD.

Invades Iowa and Challenges Republicans to Meet His Arguments.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Oct. 6.—"I present myself as an example of one who has outlived the venomous attacks of his opponents. You heard me called a demagogue twelve years ago. You saw them bury me and you heard them chant songs over my grave, and now they have explained why it happened that I was not dead."

With all the fervor that he could muster up, William J. Bryan, facing a vast assemblage in the Chautauqua auditorium between Tama and Toledo, in this state, today delivered himself of this utterance. At no time during the campaign has he spoken so earnest and with such fervor. His remarks followed a bitter denunciation of Mr. Taft for refusing to agree to a publication of campaign contributions before election. No honest man and no political party conducting an honest campaign, he declared, "need be afraid of the light."

Ridicule Effective Weapon.

At Woodward he heaped ridicule on the republicans by charging them with taking credit for the growth of crops, the shining of the sun and the bringing of rain. "In fact," he said, "they seize upon anything that they think gives a plausible excuse for voting the republican ticket."

At Maxwell he compared the granting of special privileges to a case of poison in the human system. "There has been a poison at work in our politics," he declared, "and today its manifestations are such that I believe the American people are ready to apply of privilege, the poison of favoritism. Our government has been run too largely in the interest of the favored few."

Draws Large Crowds.

Drawing large, cheering crowds all day in the course of his travels through the state, the democratic candidate, never in better form, hurled defiance at his opponents and challenged them to meet his arguments. Fifteen speeches and handshaking with thousands constituted his day's work, the concluding speech being made here tonight. The keynote of his principal remarks here was that the republican policies meant disaster, while democratic policies meant prosperity.

Democratic Prosperity.

On this subject he said: "The democratic party is absolutely necessary to restore prosperity. The republican party has had its chance and it has failed. We are now in the midst of a depression for which natural conditions furnish no excuse. Artificial conditions are responsible for the present business prostrations and these artificial conditions originated in republican policies. The business failures of the nine months ended Sept. 30 were 111,943 in number and the liabilities amounted to $179,000,000. It means that if the assets are worth in fact the amount at which they are placed, there will still be a loss of $56,000,000 to be accounted for. This tremendous cost comes at a time when crops are reasonably good and when nature has not withheld her bounty. It comes when the republicans are in complete control. They have a president whom they enlogize in their platform, a senate completely in the hands of the republican party, a republican house of representatives, dominated by a despotic speaker. We can assume, therefore, that they have done everything they could do consistently. Their policies seek to prevent the panic, and yet the panic is here. It comes, too, when we have a tariff so high that even the republicans promise unequivocally to revise immediately and Mr. Taft has ventured the opinion that the revision will probably be downward."

"In amount, the failures of the last nine months exceed in number the failures of the corresponding nine months of 1893 and the difference between assets and liabilities is greater this year than in 1893, although the total amount of liabilities was greater in 1893 than this year. But it must be remembered that the McKinley law was still in force in 1893. It was in force until the summer of 1894. The Wilson bill was not passed until the summer of 1894. The failures of that year were not as great in number or in amount of liabilities as they are this year. The failures of 1895 were not as great in amount or in the total liabilities as they are this year. The failures in 1896 were not equal to the failures of this year in number or in number of liabilities, and yet in 1896 the republicans were talking about a democratic panic and promising prosperity."

"A member of the British cabinet said recently in a speech that exports of cotton goods from Lancashire had increased 11 per cent over last year, and he declared that the cotton exports of the United States had fallen off 45 per cent in the same time. If this be true, how will the protectionist explain it?"

Labor and Capital.

"The democratic party does promise to prevent the creation of private monopolies. To have prosperity, we must have harmonious co-operation between labor and capital. The republican party does not promise this. On the contrary, it promises to continue the policies which estranged labor and capital and have made labor troubles acute. The democratic party promises justice between labor and capital and a restoration of peace and friendship between employer and employee."

"To have prosperity we must protect the depositors and thus induce them to take their money out of hiding and restore it to the channels of trade. The republican party does not promise protection of deposits. The democratic party does. The democratic party promises legislation which will insure depositors. The man who puts his money in a bank must know that he can withdraw it at any time and this security should be given by the banks because the banks make their money out of their depositors. If we are going to have prosperity we must have a reduction in the tariff. The people recognize the tariff is extortionate. Even the republican leaders are forced to admit this, and yet they are deliberately planning to prevent any real revision by electing a stand-pat congress. If the republican party wins it will not revise the tariff in the interests of the consumer, and that means that the present agitation must continue for four years longer."

"Do the business men want business unsettled? Do the business men want an extension to be unsettled by four years of discussion over tariff rates. If the democratic party wins there will be an immediate reduction of the tariff, which will satisfy the public demand and remove the tariff question from politics for a number of years. A democratic victory means prosperity, prosperity to all the people, a prosperity that will be permanent."

Mr. Bryan left at 11 o'clock for Chicago, where he is due at 7 o'clock in the morning.

REPUBLICANS MADE LEASE.

Trying to Make Democrats Responsible for Osage Oil Lease.

Independence, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Daily Reporter today published the following:

"Gov. Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma has demanded of President Roosevelt that the Foster blanket oil lease of the Osage nation be revoked, holding it to be a republican grant. Gov. Haskell will no doubt be surprised to learn that the original Foster lease, comprising the entire Osage nation, was approved by Secretary Hoke Smith of Georgia, under the democratic administration of Grover Cleveland, and was never questioned until Secretary Hitchcock, a republican, characterized it 'The most scandalous act the Interior Department ever perpetrated.'" lease was reduced to cover only those lands upon which expenditures had been made in the search for oil.

Gov. Smith Makes Explanation.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—When shown the Associated Press dispatch today quoting an Independence (Kan.) newspaper as saying that the Foster oil lease of the Osage nation was approved by him while secretary of the interior, under President Cleveland's administration, Gov. Hoke Smith said:

"The Osage lease which Gov. Haskell has attacked was made by the republican administration. It was approved in 1896, under my administration as secretary of the interior, which expired March 16, 1906. It was granted before oil was discovered in the Osage country, before oil was discovered in Texas, when no oil had been discovered in Kansas and when no oil pipes or railroads were accessible for transportation from the Osage country."

"The lease was directed by the Osage Indian national council, recommended by Col. Freeman, Osage Indian agent, and recommended by the Indian bureau. It was approved by Assistant Secretary Reynolds."

"When Secretary Hitchcock criticized the lease of 1896 I went at once to Washington, and on Feb. 18, 1905, I exposed through the press his baseless charge. The Washington Star of the following day published an 'unofficial' statement from the interior department that the statement made by Secretary Hitchcock was 'without any intention of charging Secretary Smith or any other official of the department with dereliction of duty.'

"The department, under my administration, approved a lease to individuals in a large, undeveloped territory when there was little to encourage expenditure of money boring for oil. The republican administration made a lease to corporations of 680,000 acres of developed oil fields. It is the republican lease which is now the subject of attack."

Sheldon at White House.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Treasurer Sheldon of the republican national committee, after luncheon, gave out the following statement today:

"The president asked me to come over and lunch with him two or three weeks ago, but the duties of my position have made it impossible for me to come before now. We went carefully over the general situation."

"On his authority, as well as that of my own knowledge, I can say positively that the relations between him and Mr. Hitchcock are of the closest and most friendly character; that Mr. Hitchcock has his entire confidence and that the president heartily approves of the manner in which Mr. Hitchcock is managing the campaign, and I may add the president is entirely confident of the result."

Mr. Sheldon left at 4 o'clock this afternoon for New York.

HASKELL DEMONSTRATION.

Friday evening in Oklahoma City on the occasion of Governor Haskell's appearance when he will deliver an address, there will probably occur one of the most notable demonstrations ever accorded a democratic leader in any state.

The democracy of Oklahoma City is preparing to greet the thousands of democratic visitors throughout the state who will be in attendance for the purpose of emphasizing their loyalty to the chief executive of Oklahoma.

It is reported that substantially the entire membership of numerous clubs throughout the state will visit Oklahoma City for the purpose of demonstrating confidence in the fidelity of the governor to the interests of the people.

Under the circumstances and in uniformity with the spirit of the democracy of Pontotoc county, it would be marked propriety should a delegation attend this great ratification Friday evening.

Would it not be a good idea for those who contemplate attending the state fair during the week to so time their visit that they could conveniently join the multitude of Haskell defenders at this time?

The democracy of Pontotoc county has already attested its faith in the integrity of the governor and its great sorrow for the extraordinary conduct of the president for proceeding in such an unworthy manner against its governor.

Some of Ada's leading democrats are advocating a delegation of an hundred and the big brass band to fall in on Oklahoma City Friday, just to show the country, they said, that we are patriotic and justice loving people.

The president's newborn anxiety to raise a rousing campaign fund suggests that he is now convinced that the republican party needs something besides him.

RINARD, FLOYD AND SHORT.

Capable, Conscientious County Commissioners of Pontotoc County.

Honest, intelligent citizens, when they are thinking of changing locations, are always desirous of information concerning the character and intelligence of those who conduct the local and county government within the district in which they may propose to build a new home.

A study of the personnel of the local officers will not only afford one an intelligent conception of the general moral attributes of their constituencies, but as well will indicate the measure of intelligence and economy with which official transactions are performed.

Decidedly, the most important officers within a county from economic standpoint are the county commissions. Careful and honest party's are always careful to select capable and honorable men, therefore, it was of consistent occurrence, when three highly honorable and efficient citizens of Pontotoc county were entrusted through the duties of the board of county commissioners with the control of the financial business of Pontotoc county.

John D. Rinard, chairman; G. M. Short and C. W. Floyd are the efficient county commissioners of Pontotoc county. These gentlemen have to their credit the construction of a northeast and southwest and southeast and northwest public highways through the length of the county with their diagonal intersections at Ada, and the connection thereto of county roads through the principal towns to the central markets and the building of twenty-one bridges, two of which are of steel and the general economical administration of the financial affairs of the county.

The fact that practically one hundred miles of superior railroad trackage traverses the county, the fact that some of the largest manufacturing industries are located within its boundaries, all of which are called upon to pay an equitable and proportionate tax for the support of our government, taken together with the economic conduct of the financial affairs of this county, affords the reason that there is no county in the state with so low commensurate taxation requirements in proportion to its internal public improvements and conveniences.

The county of Pontotoc is truly under obligations to its county commissioners who are conscientiously meeting the requirements of the vast amount of labor they are called upon to perform in the attendant duties of organizing and directing the affairs of a new county government.

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE."

Appeal to Democrats for Bryan and Kern Campaign Fund, from the Democratic National Committee.

There are no secrets in this campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted which requires any promise, either express or implied, other than for honest, impartial government.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "swollen fortunes" by purchasing favors in the past with millions contributed to control elections, stand ready to give millions more for continued favors. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th, 1909, "Let the People Rule."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

"Beware of the trusts bearing gifts."

That policy of the favored few buying a mortgage on the government meant that the candidate for president knew a few people only in an entire state.

Bryan says, "We will take the cause of people's rule home to the people in every county."

You can serve the grand cause of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's good; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves his country only for his country's goods.

Sincerely,

NORMAN E. MACK, Chm.

NOTE: Bryan's name will not appear on the official ballot. The only way to register your vote for him is to vote for the seven democratic candidates for presidential electors.

The only safe way to vote for the presidential electors and make sure your vote will count for Bryan is to stamp in the circle under the Rooster, thus voting a straight democratic ticket.

An attempt to scratch your ticket and vote for some republican candidate is apt to result in your vote being thrown out entirely because of a mistake. We can't afford this year to take any chances. We want to make Bryan's majority in Oklahoma as large as possible, and in order to do that, every loyal democrat should place one mark in the circle under the rooster and stop right there. That votes the straight democratic ticket, and there can be no question about your vote being counted for Bryan.

While the supreme judges are nominated by electors, they are elected from the state at large, so every voter should vote for one supreme judge from each supreme court judicial district. However, if you vote the straight democratic ticket by marking in the circle beneath the rooster your vote will count for the two candidates for supreme judge. One stamp in the circle under the rooster is all that is required to vote for every democratic nominee.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Henry M. Furman, Jr.

Tuesday on the occasion of the 15th birthday anniversary of Henry M. Furman, Jr., there was accorded in such honor the entertainment of his teachers and a few playmates in his home, where an elegant six o'clock dinner was served, after which all were indulged in the domino game of 42. The guests were the Misses Spriggs and Stovall of the high school and Harmon Ebey, Jack Reed and Otis Weaver.

XX Century Club Meets.

Another one of the XX Century Club's opening days is a thing of the past, but will live in the memory of those present as one of the most enjoyable of the many pleasant meetings they have held during the eight years of their organization. Mrs. E. W. Hardin extended the glad hand to the twenty-five members of this club at her home and made us feel it was good to meet once more and begin our year's study. There were also present, Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Weaver, Miss Garrott and Miss Harold, who assisted Mrs. Shanafelt in the musical program rendered and which was excellent throughout.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lefevre gave excellent readings and were heartily encoered and responded in a most delightful manner.

A dainty salad course was served after the close of the musical and we reluctantly bid goodbye to our charming hostess and a pleasant afternoon.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 58 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by G. M. Ramsey. 156-1mo

SOME TROUBLES OF MR. JONES.

A Few Minutes With the Man Who Collects the Water Bill.

When you go to the city hall to pay your water bill and have a few words to say about the impossibility of your having used all the water for which you are charged, did you ever stop to think that the polite, accommodating gentleman on the other side of the window is compelled to listen to a constant stream of those kicks all day long? Did you ever stop to think that he hears the same old complaint from the time he gets down in the morning until he wearily goes home at night? Well, he does.

You may be annoyed because you have to stand in line a few minutes until two or three people ahead of you are disposed of.

But Wilburn Jones, the urbane man behind the window, sees that line before him all day long.

A woman walks in carrying several packages on her arm. In a minute it is her turn. She walks to the window, carefully arranges the bundles on the window sill, transfers her chatelaine bag from the left wrist to the right hand, opens the bag, takes out her purse, closes the bag and opens the purse. She's making fine progress you think. But, no, she opens the wrong apartment in the purse, closes that with a snap and opens another. Fingering around among recipes for blackberry jam, postage stamps and a sample of that lovely gingham, she finds a $5 bill. Fine. She takes out the bill, lays it on the counter, shuts the purse, opens the chatelaine, places the purse in the chatelaine, closes the chatelaine and then looks at the clerk as if to say: "Well, why don't you give me my change?"

The Same Old Kick.

"What's the name, please?" inquires Mr. Jones, with that smile that makes him one of the most popular men in town..

"O, to be sure," then another manipulation of chatelaine, purse and several apartments and she pulls out a postcard that has been bent and folded to fit a one by one and one-half inch space. Then it begins:

"Haven't you made a mistake?" she asks. "My bill is $4.44, and I know we used less water than we did last time, for John was away two months and I only did the lightest kind of housekeeping."

Mr. Jones reminds her that she thought to sprinkle the yard several times during the hot weather. Only half satisfied, she receives a receipt and 45 cents change. Now begins the final act. The chatelaine is opened, the purse taken out, the chatelaine closed, the purse opened and the 45 cents dropped in. Closing the purse, she opens the chatelaine and puts the purse in it. Then she is through.

It's that way all day long.

"We're getting off lucky this time," Mr. Jones started to say. "Very few kicks. The people are beginning to learn that we—"

"I wish you would please tell me why it is that I am sent a bill every month, when Mrs. Smith, who lives right across the street, only gets her's every three months?" an imperious voice asks. After the customary manipulation of bag and purse the postcard is produced.

Another Explanation.

"Well, you see, it's this way." Mr. Jones begins the explanation that he can repeat forward, backward or sideways. "You pay for 9,000 gallons of water in advance. You pay for 3,000 gallons a month for three months. You pay $3.45 for the 9,000 gallons. Now, if you use 10,000 gallons the first month, at the end of that first month we send you a bill for the difference between 9,000 gallons, which you have paid for, and the 10,000 gallons which you have used. In this case it is 1,000 gallons, or 30 cents worth of water. Then we have to send you a bill for the other two months in the quarter, too."

"O, I see," the woman says, looking as if she comprehended that the Persian pillars were carved in Acro-phitic script.

HURRAH FOR BRYAN.

Republican Candidate Encounters Opposition.

Butler, Ind., Oct. 6.—"Hurrah for Bryan!" was the greeting that Mr. Sherman was met with here, coming from the lips of a pretty young girl, whose eyes danced defiantly as she sent forth the challenge to the republican candidate for vice president.

"My dear young lady, you're not going to get left this morning, but you will in November," replied Mr. Sherman.

"You are the most courageous person I've met in my travels, and I congratulate you on the spirit you have, I like bravery in young ladies as well as in young men. Evidently you have been so misled that you believe Mr. Bryan has a chance and that such a chance would be good for the people, but it certainly would not. All of Mr. Bryan's predictions of either good or evil have materialized in what echo answers, 'What?'"

EXPERTS IN COAL MINES.

Making Study of Plans to Decrease Mine Accidents.

McAlester, Ok., Oct. 6.—In charge of Dr. Joseph Holmes and W. L. Manning of the geological survey, Carl Meisner, commissioner of commerce and labor of the German empire; M. Victor Watteyne of Brussels, inspector general of mining in Belgium; Captain Arthur Desborough, chief commissioner of explosives under King Edward, are here in a special car and are being shown through the mines of this district, for the purpose of studying more economic methods of mining and the use of explosives. They were tendered a banquet tonight.

On September 1 the commission left New York for the anthracite fields of Pennsylvania and Virginia. Then making a jump westward, the mines of Wyoming and Utah were examined. They then went to New Mexico and will go from here to Alabama and West Virginia. After the trip is finished the commission will spend some time in Washington preparing a report for the department of the interior.

In the French coal mines they do not average one death in 1,000 per year, while in America the death rate averages four out of every 1,000 miners who go underground.

Congress having appropriated $150,000 for an investigation into the mines disasters of this country, it was decided to invite the leading foreign experts to make a trip thru the coal fields of this country and turn in a report on conditions.

THE DALLAS PREACHER.

Leading Texas Minister is Conducting Revival for the Rev. White, Presbyterian Minister.

Rev. J. Frank Smith, D. D., of Dallas, Tex., is here and began a series of evangelistic services last evening at the Presbyterian church corner 15th and Townsend. Dr. Smith preached an able sermon from the text, "The Harvest Truly is Plentiful, But the Laborers are Few." His earnest appeals to the Christian people of Ada in behalf of those who are unsaved certainly met with a hearty response as was evidenced from keen interest in the services. He emphasized the fact that the reason why there were so many who are not Christians is because we who are Christians do not take the interest in them that we should.

Dr. Smith conducted services at the Desota this afternoon at 2:30. There was a large attendance and good interest manifested.

The services at the church will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m., and at the Desota at 2:30 p. m.

INDIAN GOVERNOR READS MESSAGE.

Recommends Sale of Surplus Lands Observing Treaty Rights.

Tuskahoma, Ok., Oct. 6.—Governor Green McCurtain of the Choctaw nation read his message to the Choctaw legislature today. He recommends an early settlement of all tribal matters with strict adherence to treaties, the sale of 2,000,000 of surplus lands, including the forest and the coal and asphalt reservations; opposes the reopening of the citizenship rolls and recommends that the Indian council pass upon certain applications for enrollment, and suggests that a commission composed of three members, two of whom shall be Indians, a Chickasaw and a Choctaw, be appointed to appraise and offer for sale the coal and asphalt lands.

The message concludes: "Since the last time you convened serious and important changes have come. Statehood, with its responsibilities and duties, is with us, and, while it may take some time for many of our people to adapt themselves to the new customs and conditions which surround them, I express the hope that the Choctaw people will meet these new conditions in a manner befitting the history and traditions of a brave and courageous people."

IS ROOSEVELT TO STUMP?

Denials From White House Are Now Qualified.

Washington, Oct. 6.—"President Roosevelt at present has no intention of taking the stump in behalf of Mr. Taft," is the way in which persistent reports to the effect that he was to make a speaking tour in favor of the candidacy of the republican nominee are now denied at the White House.

The latest story on this subject is that received at Lincoln, Neb., yesterday by Mr. Bryan that the president intended taking the stump and was planning to make at least six speeches on a tour across the country, terminating in San Francisco. This information was said to have reached Mr. Bryan from persons in the East upon whom reliability could be placed.

The report is similar to that which Vice Chairman Hudspeth of the democratic campaign committee announced several weeks ago he had received. At that time the president personally was asked at Oyster Bay about the report, and he said he had not the least idea of taking the stump and that he had not given the matter a thought.

Powder Trust.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The government will begin tomorrow to take testimony in the case against the "powder trust." William G. Mahaffey, appointed by Judge George Gray of Delaware special examiner to hear testimony, will sit at Willamton tomorrow, and has notified both sides to be ready with witnesses. It is presumed that T. Coleman Dupont, head of the so-called powder trust, who recently was forced to resign his position as chairman of the speaker's committee of the republican national committee, will be one of the chief witnesses for the trust. The powder trust case promises to be the lengthiest ever heard. The record of testimony taken in the Standard Oil case, in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $29,400,000, contained 3,000,000 words. It is estimated in the powder trust case will contain 4,000,000 words.

It will require at least nine months to take the testimony before the case actually comes to trial.

BILLUPS RETURNS.

The Cordell Senator Says It Looks Good In Indiana.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 6.—Senator Richard A. Billups of Cordell, noted as the author of the Oklahoma prohibition law, returned yesterday from a tour of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, where he has been making speeches under the direction of the democratic national campaign committee. He was in Oklahoma City last night on his way home and told an interesting story of his visit in the doubtful states.

"No, not doubtful," he said, "not all of them, at any rate. Indiana is safe for Bryan; there is no longer any doubt about it. Democracy is making great inroads into the republican majorities of Illinois and Iowa. Bryan has an excellent chance to win, in fact, he has already won."

Senator Billups drew large crowds at all his speaking places.

"Of course, the rank and file knew nothing of me, but the very fact that I was from Oklahoma, made me a drawing card," he said. "I found a great interest manifested in this state."

"About the first thing they want to know about is our bank guaranty law. Interest is general in this measure. Then they ask about our initiative and referendum law and our prohibition law. They are envious of us, many of those people are; we are going too fast for them."

"Governor Haskell is stronger to-day than he was before the attacks were made upon him. Democrats in the states I visited are almost in a unit in their support of him and many republicans openly denounce the president."

Senator Billups next week takes the stump in Oklahoma in behalf of the state dispensary law.

Norman E. Mack III.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 6.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the democratic national committee, collapsed to-night as a result of fatigue and a severe cold, and is under the care of a physician and a trained nurse.

The illness of Mr. Mack came suddenly, and alarmed fellow members of the democratic committee. Dr. Hammond of the Auditorium Hotel was summoned, and said Mr. Mack is suffering from overwork and nervous exhaustion. He does not believe the illness to be a serious one, and intimated the patient will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Chairman Mack arrived in Chicago from New York yesterday afternoon.

BRYAN HITTING HARD.

Invades Iowa and Challenges Republicans to Meet His Arguments.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Oct. 6.—"I present myself as an example of one who has outlived the venomous attacks of his opponents. You heard me called a demagogue twelve years ago. You saw them bury me and you heard them chant songs over my grave, and now they have explained why it happened that I was not dead."

With all the fervor that he could muster up, William J. Bryan, facing a vast assemblage in the Chautauqua auditorium between Tama and Toledo, in this state, today delivered himself of this utterance. At no time during the campaign has he spoken so earnest and with such fervor. His remarks followed a bitter denunciation of Mr. Tait for refusing to agree to a publication of campaign contributions before election. No honest man and no political party conducting an honest campaign, he declared, "need be afraid of the light."

Blindfold Effective Weapon.

At Woodward he heaped ridicule on the republicans by charging them with taking credit for the growth of crops, the shining of the sun and the bringing of rain. "In fact," he said, "they seize upon anything that they think gives a plausible excuse for voting the republican ticket."

At Maxwell he compared the granting of special privileges to a case of poison in the human system. "There has been a poison at work in our politics," he declared, "and today its manifestations are such that I believe the American people are ready to apply of privilege, the poison of favoritism. Our government has been run too largely in the interest of the favored few."

Draws Large Crowds.

Drawing large, cheering crowds all day in the course of his travels through the state, the democratic candidate never in better form, hurled defiance at his opponents and challenged them to meet his arguments. Fifteen speeches and handshaking with thousands constituted his day's work, the concluding speech being made here tonight. The keynote of his principal remarks here was that the republican policies meant disaster, while democratic policies meant prosperity.

Democratic Prosperity.

On this subject he said: "The democratic party is absolutely necessary to restore prosperity. The republican party has had its chance and it has failed. We are now in the midst of a depression for which natural conditions furnish no excuse. Artificial conditions are responsible for the present business prostrations and these artificial conditions originated in republican policies. The business failures of the nine months ended Sept. 30 were 111,912 in number and the liabilities amounted to $179,000,000. It means that if the assets are worth in fact the amount at which they are placed, there will still be a loss of $56,000,000 to be accounted for. This tremendous cost comes at a time when crops are reasonably good and when nature has not withheld her bounty. It comes when the republicans are in complete control. They have a president whom they extol in their platform, a senate completely in the hands of the republican party, a republican house of representatives, dominated by a despotic speaker. We can assume, therefore, that they have done everything they could do consistently. Their policies seek to prevent the panic, and yet the panic is here. It comes, too, when we have a tariff so high that even the republicans promise unequivocally to revise immediately and Mr. Tait has ventured the opinion that the revision will probably be downward.

"In amount, the failures of the last nine months exceed in number the failures of the corresponding nine months of 1893 and the difference between assets and liabilities is greater this year than in 1893, although the total amount of liabilities was greater in 1893 than this year. But it must be remembered that the McKinley law was still in force in 1893. It was in force until the summer of 1894. The Wilson bill was not passed until the summer of 1894. The failures of that year were not as great in number or in amount of liabilities as they are this year. The failures of 1895 were not as great in amount or in the total liabilities as they are this year. The failures in 1896 were not equal to the failures of this year in number or in number of liabilities, and yet in 1896 the republicans were talking about a democratic panic and promising prosperity.

"A member of the British cabinet said recently in a speech that exports of cotton goods from Lancashire had increased 11 per cent over last year, and he declared that the cotton exports of the United States had fallen off 15 per cent in the same time. I think he is true, how will the protectionist explain it?"

Labor and Capital.

"The democratic party does promise to prevent the creation of private monopolies. To have prosperity, we must have harmonious co-operation between labor and capital. The republican party does not promise this. On the contrary, it promises to continue the policies which estranged labor and capital and have made labor troubles acute. The democratic party promises justice between labor and capital and a restoration of peace and friendship between employer and employee.

"To have prosperity we must protect the depositors and thus induce them to take their money out of hiding and restore it to the channels of trade. The republican party does not promise protection of deposits. The democratic party does. The democratic party promises legislation which will insure depositors. The man who puts his money in a bank must know that he can withdraw it at any time and this security should be given by the banks because the banks make their money out of their depositors. If we are going to have prosperity we must have a reduction in the tariff. The people recognize the tariff is extortionate. Even the republican leaders are forced to admit this, and yet they are deliberately planning to prevent any real revision by electing a stand-pat congress. If the republican party wins it will not revise the tariff in the interests of the consumer, and that means that the present agitation must continue for four years longer.

"Do the business men want business unsettled? Do the business men want an extension to be unsettled by four years of discussion over tariff rates? If the democratic party wins there will be an immediate reduction of the tariff, which will satisfy the public demand and remove the tariff question from politics for a number of years. A democratic victory means prosperity, prosperity to all the people, a prosperity that will be permanent."

Mr. Bryan left at 11 o'clock for Chicago, where he is due at 7 o'clock in the morning.

REPUBLICANS MADE LEASE.

Trying to Make Democrats Responsible for Osage Oil Lease.

Independence, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Daily Reporter today published the following:

"Gov. Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma has demanded of President Roosevelt that the Foster blanket oil lease of the Osage nation be revoked, holding it to be a republican grant. Gov. Haskell will no doubt be surprised to learn that the original Foster lease, comprising the entire Osage nation, was approved by Secretary Hoke Smith of Georgia, under the democratic administration of Grover Cleveland, and was never questioned until Secretary Hitchcock, a republican, characterized it 'The most scandalous act the Interior Department ever perpetrated.' Under Secretary Hitchcock the lease was reduced to cover only those lands upon which expenditures had been made in the search for oil.

Gov. Smith Makes Explanation.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—When shown the Associated Press dispatch today quoting an Independence (Kan.) newspaper as saying that the Foster oil lease of the Osage nation was approved by him while secretary of the interior, under President Cleveland's administration, Gov. Hoke Smith said:

"The Osage lease which Gov. Haskell has attacked was made by the republican administration. It was approved in 1896, under my administration as secretary of the interior, which expired March 16, 1906. It was granted before oil was discovered in the Osage country, before oil was discovered in Texas, when no oil had been discovered in Kansas and when no oil pipes or railroads were accessible for transportation from the Osage country.

"The lease was directed by the Osage Indian national council, recommended by Col. Freeman, Osage Indian agent, and recommended by the Indian bureau. It was approved by Assistant Secretary Reynolds.

"When Secretary Hitchcock criticized the lease of 1896 I went at once to Washington, and on Feb. 18, 1905, I exposed through the press his baseless charge. The Washington Star of the following day published an 'unofficial' statement from the interior department that the statement made by Secretary Hitchcock was 'without any intention of charging Secretary Smith or any other official of the department with dereliction of duty.'

"The department, under my administration, approved a lease to individuals in a large, undeveloped territory when there was little to encourage expenditure of money boring for oil. The republican administration made a lease to corporations of 650,000 acres of developed oil fields. It is the republican lease which is now the subject of attack."

Sheldon at White House.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Treasurer Sheldon of the republican national committee, after luncheon, gave out the following statement today:

"The president asked me to come over and lunch with him two or three weeks ago, but the duties of my position have made it impossible for me to come before now. We went carefully over the general situation.

"On his authority, as well as that of my own knowledge, I can say positively that the relations between him and Mr. Hitchcock are of the closest and most friendly character; that Mr. Hitchcock has his entire confidence and that the president heartily approves of the manner in which Mr. Hitchcock is managing the campaign, and I may add the president is entirely confident of the result."

Mr. Sheldon left at 4 o'clock this afternoon for New York.

We have sold goods in Ada six years, but we don't ask you to trade with us for the reason we do business in Ada or because we are friends. Neither do we send you prices and descriptions and insist on you sending us the money without personal inspection of our goods, as catalogue houses do, but ask for your trade on the broad ground of good, reliable goods, sold at fair prices and easy terms, with the fact made prominent that we carry a good reliable stock.

We call special attention to our Rockers shipped direct from the factory; no middle man's profit. They are selling fast. Six Upholster Rockers went out Friday and Saturday. We placed rush orders today to supply the demand. When you are in our store, ask to see our Iron Beds, especially a Vernis Martin, two inch post for $16.00. We solicit your inspection of our stock.

HASKELL DEMONSTRATION.

Friday evening in Oklahoma City on the occasion of Governor Haskell's appearance when he will deliver an address, there will probably occur one of the most notable demonstrations ever accorded a democratic leader in any state.

The democracy of Oklahoma City is preparing to greet the thousands of democratic visitors throughout the state who will be in attendance for the purpose of emphasizing their loyalty to the chief executive of Oklahoma.

It is reported that substantially the entire membership of numerous clubs throughout the state will visit Oklahoma City for the purpose of demonstrating confidence in the fidelity of the governor to the interests of the people.

Under the circumstances and in uniformity with the spirit of the democracy of Pontotoc county, it would be marked propriety should a delegation attend this great ratification Friday evening.

Would it not be a good idea for those who contemplate attending the state fair during the week to so time their visit that they could conveniently join the multitude of Haskell defenders at this time?

The democracy of Pontotoc county has already attested its faith in the integrity of the governor and its great sorrow for the extraordinary conduct of the president for proceeding in such an unworthy manner against its governor.

Some of Ada's leading democrats are advocating a delegation of an hundred and the big brass band to fall in on Oklahoma City Friday, just to show the country, they said, that we are patriotic and justice loving people.

The president's newborn anxiety to raise a rousing campaign fund suggests that he is now convinced that the republican party needs something besides him.

RINARD, FLOYD AND SHORT.

Capable, Conscientious County Commissioners of Pontotoc County.

Honest, intelligent citizens, when they are thinking of changing locations, are always desirous of information concerning the character and intelligence of those who conduct the local and county government within the district in which they may propose to build a new home.

A study of the personnel of the local officers will not only afford one an intelligent conception of the general moral attributes of their constituents, but as well will indicate the measure of intelligence and economy with which official transactions are performed.

Decidedly, the most important officers within a county from economic standpoint are the county commissioners. Careful and honest party's are capable and select capable and honorable men, therefore, it was of consistent occurrence, when three highly honorable and efficient citizens of Pontotoc county were entrusted through the duties of the board of county commissioners with the control of the financial business of Pontotoc county.

John D. Rinard, chairman; G. M. Short and C. W. Floyd are the efficient county commissioners of Pontotoc county. These gentlemen have to their credit the construction of a northeast and southwest and southeast and northwest public highways through the length of the county with their diagonal intersections at Ada, and the connection thereto of county roads through the principal towns to the central markets and the building of twenty-one bridges; two of which are of steel and the general economical administration of the financial affairs of the county.

The fact that practically one hundred miles of superior railroad trackage traverses the county, the fact that some of the largest manufacturing industries are located within its boundaries, all of which are called upon to pay an equitable and proportionate tax for the support of our government, taken together with the economic conduct of the financial affairs of this county, affords the reason that there is no county in the state with so low commensurate taxation requirements in proportion to its internal public improvements and conveniences.

The county of Pontotoc is truly under obligations to its county commissioners who are conscientiously meeting the requirements of the vast amount of labor they are called upon to perform in the attendant duties of organizing and directing the affairs of a new county government.

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE."

Appeal to Democrats for Bryan and Kern Campaign Fund, from the Democratic National Committee.

There are no secrets in this campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money; paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted, which requires any promise either express or implied, other than for honest, impartial government.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangled alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "swollen fortunes" by purchasing favors in the past with millions contributed to control elections, stand ready to give millions more for continued favors. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th 1909, "Let the People Rule."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

"Beware of the trusts bearing gifts."

That policy of the favored few buying a mortgage on the government meant that the candidate for president knew a few people only in an entire state.

Bryan says, "We will take the cause of people's rule home to the people in every county."

You can serve the grand cause of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's good; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves his country only for his country's goods.

Sincerely,

NORMAN E. MACK, Chm.

Send in Your Contributions.

In accordance with the above the Ada Banks will receive subscriptions to the National Campaign Fund and the Ada Daily and Weekly News urges all loyal democrats to send in their contributions. The banks will transmit them weekly to Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, who will issue to each contributor a beautifully executed acknowledgment printed in three colors as a souvenir of their devotion to the cause of Democracy and the principles of government by the people.

NOTE: Bryan's name will not appear on the official ballot. The only way to register your vote for him is a vote for the seven democratic candidates for presidential electors.

The only safe way to vote for the presidential electors and make sure your vote will count for Bryan is to stamp in the circle under the Rooster, thus voting a straight democratic ticket.

An attempt to scratch your ticket and vote for some republican candidate is apt to result in your vote being thrown out entirely because of a mistake. We can't afford this year to take any chances. We want to make Bryan's majority in Oklahoma as large as possible, and in order to do that, every loyal democrat should place one mark in the circle under the rooster and stop right there. That votes the straight democratic ticket, and there can be no question about your vote being counted for Bryan.

While the supreme judges are nominated by electors, they are elected from the state at large, so every voter should vote for one supreme judge from each supreme court judicial district. However, if you vote the straight democratic ticket by marking in the circle beneath the rooster your vote will count for the two candidates for supreme judge. One stamp in the circle under the rooster is all that is required to vote for every democratic nominee.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all parts, all tissue, and all blood elements. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cures nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, brings about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

XX Century Club Meets.

Another one of the XX Century Club's opening days is a thing of the past, but will live in the memory of those present as one of the most enjoyable of the many pleasant meetings they have held during the eight years of their organization.

Mrs. E. W. Hardin extended the glad hand to the twenty-five members of this club at her home and made us feel it was good to meet once more and begin our year's study. There were also present, Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Weaver, Miss Garrett and Miss Harold, who assisted Mrs. Shanafelt in the musical program rendered and which was excellent throughout.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lefevre gave excellent readings and were heartily encored and responded in a most delightful manner.

A dainty salad course was served after the close of the musical and we reluctantly bid goodbye to our charming hostess and a pleasant afternoon.

A Few Minutes With the Man Who Collects the Water Bill.

When you go to the city hall to pay your water bill and have a few words to say about the impossibility of your having used all the water for which you are charged, did you ever stop to think that the polite, accommodating gentleman on the other side of the window is compelled to listen to a constant stream of those kinks all day long? Did you ever stop to think that he hears the same old complaint from the time he gets down in the morning until he wearily goes home at night? Well, he does.

You may be annoyed because you have to stand in line a few minutes until two or three people ahead of you are disposed of.

But Wilburn Jones, the urbane man behind the window, sees that line before him all day long.

A woman walks in carrying several packages on her arm. In a minute it is her turn. She walks to the window, carefully arranges the bundles on the window sill, transfers her chatelaine bag from the left wrist to the right hand, opens the bag, takes out her purse, closes the bag and opens the purse. She's making fine progress you think. But, no, she opens the wrong apartment in the purse, closes that with a snap and opens another, fumbling around among recipes for blackberry jam, postage stamps and a sample of that lovely alingham, she finds a $5 bill.

She takes out the bill, lays it on the counter, shuts the purse, opens the chatelaine, places the purse in the chatelaine, closes the chatelaine and then looks at the clerk as if to say: "Well, why don't you give me my change?"

The Same Old Kick.

"What's the name, please?" inquires Mr. Jones, with that smile that makes him one of the most popular men in town.

"O, to be sure," then another manipulation of chatelaine, purse and several apartments and she pulls out a postcard that has been bent and folded to fit a one by one and one-half inch space. Then it begins:

"Haven't you made a mistake?" she asks. "My bill is $4.41, and I know we used less water than we did last time, for John was away two months and I only did the lightest kind of housekeeping."

Mr. Jones reminds her that she thought to sprinkle the yard several times during the hot weather. Only half satisfied, she receives a receipt and 45 cents change. Now begins the final act. The chatelaine is opened, the purse taken out, the chatelaine closed, the purse opened and the 45 cents dropped in. Closing the purse, she opens the chatelaine and puts the purse in it. Then she is through.

It's that way all day long.

"We're getting off lucky this time," Mr. Jones started to say. "Very few kinks. The people are beginning to learn that way."

"I wish you would please tell me why it is that I am sent a bill every month, when Mrs. Smith, who lives right across the street, only gets her's every three months?" an imperious voice asks. After the customary manipulation of bag and purse the postcard is produced.

Another Explanation.

"Well, you see, it's this way," Mr. Jones begins the explanation that he can repeat forward, backward or sideways. "You pay for 9,000 gallons of water in advance. You pay for 3,000 gallons a month for three months. You pay $3.45 for the 9,000 gallons. Now, if you use 10,000 gallons the first month, at the end of that first month we send you a bill for the difference between 9,000 gallons, which you have paid for, and the 10,000 gallons which you have used. In this case it is 1,000 gallons, or 30 cents worth of water. Then we have to send you a bill for the other two months in the quarter, too."

"O, I see," the woman says, looking as if she comprehended that the Persian pillars were carved in Acrophile script.

Republican Candidate Encounters Opposition.

Butler, Ind., Oct. 6.—"Hurrah for Bryan!" was the greeting that Mr. Sherman was met with here, coming from the lips of a pretty young girl, whose eyes danced defiantly as she sent forth the challenge to the republican candidate for vice president.

"My dear young lady, you're not going to get left this morning, but you will in November," replied Mr. Sherman.

"You are the most courageous person I've met in my travels, and I congratulate you on the spirit you have. I like bravery in young ladies as well as in young men. Evidently you have been so misled that you believe Mr. Bryan has a chance and that such a chance would be good for the people, but it certainly would not. All of Mr. Bryan's predictions of either good or evil have materialized in what echo answers, 'What?'"

EXPERTS IN COAL MINES.

Making Study of Plans to Decrease Mine Accidents.

McAlester, Ok., Oct. 6.—In charge of Dr. Joseph Holmes and W. L. Manning of the geological survey, Carl Meisner, commissioner of commerce and labor of the German empire; M. Victor Watteyne of Brussels, inspector general of mining in Belgium; Captain Arthur Desborough, chief commissioner of explosives under King Edward, are here in a special car and are being shown through the mines of this district, for the purpose of studying more economic methods of mining and the use of explosives. They were tendered a banquet tonight.

On September 1 the commission left New York for the anthracite fields of Pennsylvania and Virginia. Then making a jump westward, the mines of Wyoming and Utah were examined. They then went to New Mexico and will go from here to Alabama and West Virginia. After the trip is finished the commission will spend some time in Washington preparing a report for the department of the interior.

In the French coal mines they do not average one death in 1,000 per year, while in America the death rate averages four out of every 1,000 miners who go underground.

Congress having appropriated $150,000 for an investigation into the mines disasters of this country, it was decided to invite the leading foreign experts to make a trip thru the coal fields of this country and turn in a report on conditions.

Leading Texas Minister is Conducting Revival for the Rev. White, Presbyterian Minister.

Rev. J. Frank Smith, D. D., of Dallas, Tex. is here and began a series of evangelistic services last evening at the Presbyterian church corner 15th and Townsend Dr. Smith preached an able sermon from the text, "The Harvest Truly is Plentiful, But the Laborers Are Few." His earnest appeals to the Christian people of Ada in behalf of those who are unsaved certainly met with a hearty response as was evidenced from keen interest in the services. He emphasized the fact that the reason why there were so many who are not Christians is because we who are Christians do not take the interest in them that we should.

Dr. Smith conducted services at the Desota this afternoon at 2:30. There was a large attendance and good interest manifested.

The services at the church will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. and at the Desota at 2:30 p. m.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocer's everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderful satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too! No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Test it and see. Dr. Shoop created Health Coffee that the people might have a genuine coffee substitute, and one that would be thoroughly satisfying in every possible respect. Sold by R. S. Tobin. 156-1m

INDIAN GOVERNOR READS MESSAGE.

Recommends Sale of Surplus Lands Observing Treaty Rights.

Tuskahoma, Ok., Oct. 6.—Governor Green McCurtain of the Choctaw nation read his message to the Choctaw legislature today. He recommends an early settlement of all tribal matters with strict adherence to treaties, the sale of 2,000,000 of surplus lands, including the forest and the coal and asphalt reservations; opposes the reopening of the citizenship rolls and recommends that the Indian council pass upon certain applications for enrollment, and suggests that a commission composed of three members, two of whom shall be Indians, a Chickasaw and a Choctaw, be appointed to appraise and offer for sale the coal and asphalt lands.

The message concludes: "Since the last time you convened serious and important changes have come. Statehood, with its responsibilities and duties, is with us, and while it may take some time for many of our people to adapt themselves to the new customs and conditions which surround them, I express the hope that the Choctaw people will meet these new conditions in a manner befitting the history and traditions of a brave and courageous people."

IS ROOSEVELT TO STUMP?

Denials From White House Are Now Qualified.

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Roosevelt at present has no intention of taking the stump in behalf of Mr. Taft, is the way in which persistent reports to the effect that he was to make a speaking tour in favor of the candidacy of the republican nominee are now denied at the White House.

The latest story on this subject is that received at Lincoln, Neb., yesterday by Mr. Bryan that the president intended taking the stump and was planning to make at least six speeches on a tour across the country, terminating at San Francisco. This information was said to have reached Mr. Bryan from persons in the East upon whom reliability could be placed.

The report is similar to that which Vice Chairman Hudspeth of the democratic campaign committee announced several weeks ago he had received. At that time the president personally was asked at Oyster Bay about the report, and he said he had not the least idea of taking the stump, and that he had not given the matter a thought.

Powder Trust.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The government will begin tomorrow to take testimony in the case against the "powder trust." William G. Mahaffey, appointed by Judge George Gray of Delaware special examiner to hear testimony, will sit at Williamton tomorrow, and has notified both sides to be ready with witnesses. It is presumed that T. Coleman Dupont, head of the so-called powder trust, who recently was forced to resign his position as chairman of the speaker's committee of the republican national committee, will be one of the chief witnesses for the trust.

The powder trust case promises to be the lengthiest ever heard. The record of testimony taken in the Standard Oil case, in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $29,400,000, contained 3,000,000 words. It is estimated in the powder trust case will contain 1,000,000 words.

It will require at least nine months to take the testimony before the case actually comes to trial.

BILLIPS RETURNS.

The Cordell Senator Says It Looks Good In Indiana.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 6.—Senator Richard A. Billips of Cordell, noted as the author of the Oklahoma prohibition law, returned yesterday from a tour of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, where he has been making speeches under the direction of the democratic national campaign committee. He was in Oklahoma City last night on his way home and told an interesting story of his visit in the doubtful states.

"No, not doubtful," he said, "not all of them, at any rate. Indiana is safe for Bryan; there is no longer any doubt about it. Democracy is making great inroads into the republican majorities of Illinois and Iowa. Bryan has an excellent chance to win, in fact, he has already won."

Senator Billips drew large crowds at all his speaking places.

"Of course, the rank and file knew nothing of me, but the very fact that I was from Oklahoma, made me a drawing card," he said. "I found a great interest manifested in this state."

"About the first thing they want to know about is our bank guaranty law. Interest is general in this measure. Then they ask about our initiative and referendum law and our prohibition law. They are envious of us, many of those people are; we are going too fast for them."

"Governor Haskell is stronger today than he was before the attacks were made upon him. Democrats in the states I visited are almost in a unit in their support of him and many republicans openly denounce the president."

Senator Billips next week takes the stump in Oklahoma in behalf of the state dispensary law.

Norman E. Mack Ill.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 6.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the democratic national committee, collapsed tonight as a result of fatigue and a severe cold, and is under the care of a physician and a trained nurse.

The illness of Mr. Mack came suddenly, and alarmed fellow members of the democratic committee. Dr. Hammond of the Auditorium Hotel was summoned, and said Mr. Mack is suffering from overwork and nervous exhaustion. He does not believe the illness to be a serious one, and intimated the patient will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Chairman Mack arrived in Chicago from New York yesterday afternoon.

BRYAN HITTING HARD.

Invades Iowa and Challenges Republican Means to Meet His Arguments.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Oct. 6.—I present myself as an example of one who has outlived the venomous attacks of his opponents. You heard me called a demagogue twelve years ago. You saw them bury me and you heard them chant songs over my grave, and now they have explained why it happened that I was not dead."

With all the fervor that he could muster up, William J. Bryan, facing a vast assemblage in the Chautauqua auditorium between Tama and Toledo, in this state, today delivered himself of this utterance. At no time during the campaign has he spoken so earnest and with such fervor. His remarks followed a bitter denunciation of Mr. Taft for refusing to agree to a publication of campaign contributions before election. No honest man and no political party conducting an honest campaign, he declared, "need be afraid of the light."

Ridicule Effective Weapon.

At Woodward he heaped ridicule on the republicans by charging them with taking credit for the growth of crops, the shining of the sun and the bringing of rain. "In fact," he said, "they seize upon anything that they think gives a plausible excuse for voting the republican ticket."

At Maxwell he compared the granting of special privileges to a case of poison in the human system. "There has been a poison at work in our politics," he declared, "and today its manifestations are such that I believe the American people are ready to apply of privilege, the poison of favoritism. Our government has been run too largely in the interest of the favored few."

Draws Large Crowds.

Drawing large, cheering crowds all day in the course of his travels through the state, the democratic candidate, never in better form, hurled defiance at his opponents and challenged them to meet his arguments. Fifteen speeches and handshaking with thousands constituted his day's work, the concluding speech being made here tonight. The keynote of his principal remarks here was that the republican policies meant disaster, while democratic policies meant prosperity.

Democratic Prosperity.

On this subject he said: "The democratic party is absolutely necessary to restore prosperity. The republican party has had its chance and it has failed. We are now in the midst of a depression for which natural conditions furnish no excuse. Artificial conditions are responsible for the present business prostrations and these artificial conditions originated in republican policies. The business failures of the nine months ended Sept. 30 were 111,912 in number and the liabilities amounted to $175,000,000. It means that if the assets are worth in fact the amount at which they are placed, there will still be a loss of $56,000,000 to be accounted for. This tremendous cost comes at a time when crops are reasonably good and when nature has not withheld her bounty. It comes when the republicans are in complete control. They have a president whom they enlogize in their platform, a senate completely in the hands of the republican party, a republican house of representatives, dominated by a despotic speaker. We can assume, therefore, that they have done everything they could do consistently. Their policies seek to prevent the panic, and yet the panic is here. It comes, too, when we have a tariff so high that even the republicans promise unequivocally to revise immediately and Mr. Taft has ventured the opinion that the revision will probably be downward.

"In amount, the failures of the last nine months exceed in number the failures of the corresponding nine months of 1893 and the difference between assets and liabilities is greater this year than in 1893, although the total amount of liabilities was greater in 1893 than this year. But it must be remembered that the McKinley law was still in force in 1893. It was in force until the summer of 1894. The Wilson bill was not passed until the summer of 1894. The failures of that year were not as great in number or in amount of liabilities as they are this year. The failures of 1895 were not as great in amount or in the total liabilities as they are this year. The failures in 1896 were not equal to the failures of this year in number or in number of liabilities, and yet in 1896 the republicans were talking about a democratic panic and promising prosperity.

"A member of the British cabinet said recently in a speech that exports of cotton goods from Lancashire had increased 11 per cent over last year, and he declared that the cotton exports of the United States had fallen off 15 per cent in the same time. If this be true, how will the protectionist explain it?"

Labor and Capital.

"The democratic party does promise to prevent the creation of private monopolies. To have prosperity, we must have harmonious co-operation between labor and capital. The republican party does not promise this. On the contrary, it promises to continue the policies which estranged labor and capital and have made labor troubles acute. The democratic party promises justice between labor and capital and a restoration of peace and friendship between employer and employee.

"To have prosperity we must protect the depositors and thus induce them to take their money out of hiding and restore it to the channels of trade. The republican party does not promise protection of deposits. The democratic party does. The democratic party promises legislation which will insure depositors. The man who puts his money in a bank must know that he can withdraw it at any time and this security should be given by the banks because the banks make their money out of their depositors. If we are going to have prosperity we must have a reduction in the tariff. The people recognize the tariff is extortionate. Even the republican leaders are forced to admit this, and yet they are deliberately planning to prevent any real revision by electing a stand-pat congress. If the republican party wins it will not revise the tariff in the interests of the consumer, and that means that the present agitation must continue for four years longer.

"Do the business men want business unsettled? Do the business men want an extension to be unsettled by four years of discussion over tariff rates? If the democratic party wins there will be an immediate reduction of the tariff, which will satisfy the public demand and remove the tariff question from politics for a number of years. A democratic victory means prosperity, prosperity to all the people, a prosperity that will be permanent."

Mr. Bryan left at 11 o'clock for Chicago, where he is due at 7 o'clock in the morning.

REPUBLICANS MADE LEASE.

Trying to Make Democrats Responsible for Osage Oil Lease.

Independence, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Daily Reporter today published the following:

"Gov. Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma has demanded of President Roosevelt that the Foster blanket oil lease of the Osage nation be revoked, holding it to be a republican grant. Gov. Haskell will no doubt be surprised to learn that the original Foster lease, comprising the entire Osage nation, was approved by Secretary Hoke Smith of Georgia, under the democratic administration of Grover Cleveland, and was never questioned until Secretary Hitchcock, a republican, characterized it 'The most scandalous act the Interior Department ever perpetrated.' Under Secretary Hitchcock the lease was reduced to cover only those lands upon which expenditures had been made in the search for oil.

Gov. Smith Makes Explanation.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—When shown the Associated Press dispatch today quoting an Independence (Kan.) newspaper as saying that the Foster oil lease of the Osage nation was approved by him while secretary of the interior, under President Cleveland's administration, Gov. Hoke Smith said:

"The Osage lease which Gov. Haskell has attacked was made by the republican administration. It was approved in 1896, under my administration as secretary of the interior, which expired March 16, 1906. It was granted before oil was discovered in the Osage country, before oil was discovered in Texas, when no oil had been discovered in Kansas and when no oil pipes or railroads were accessible for transportation from the Osage country.

"The lease was directed by the Osage Indian national council, recommended by Col. Freeman, Osage Indian agent, and recommended by the Indian bureau. It was approved by Assistant Secretary Reynolds.

"When Secretary Hitchcock criticized the lease of 1896 I went at once to Washington, and on Feb. 18, 1905, I exposed through the press his baseless charge. The Washington Star of the following day published an 'unofficial' statement from the interior department that the statement made by Secretary Hitchcock was 'without any intention of charging Secretary Smith or any other official of the department with dereliction of duty.'

"The department, under my administration, approved a lease to individuals in a large, undeveloped territory when there was little to encourage expenditure of money bor- ing for oil. The republican administration made a lease to corporations of 630,000 acres of developed oil fields. It is the republican lease which is now the subject of attack."

Sheldon at White House.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Treasurer Sheldon of the republican national committee, after luncheon, gave out the following statement today:

"The president asked me to come over and lunch with him two or three weeks ago, but the duties of my position have made it impossible for me to come before now. We went carefully over the general situation.

"On his authority, as well as that of my own knowledge, I can say positively that the relations between him and Mr. Hitchcock are of the closest and most friendly character; that Mr. Hitchcock has his entire confidence and that the president heartily approves of the manner in which Mr. Hitchcock is managing the campaign, and I may add the president is entirely confident of the result."

Mr. Sheldon left at 4 o'clock this afternoon for New York.

HASKELL DEMONSTRATION.

Friday evening in Oklahoma City on the occasion of Governor Haskell's appearance when he will deliver an address, there will probably occur one of the most notable demonstrations ever accorded a democratic leader in any state.

The democracy of Oklahoma City is preparing to greet the thousands of democratic visitors throughout the state who will be in attendance for the purpose of emphasizing their loyalty to the chief executive of Oklahoma.

It is reported that substantially the entire membership of numerous clubs throughout the state will visit Oklahoma City for the purpose of demonstrating confidence in the fidelity of the governor to the interests of the people.

Under the circumstances and in uniformity with the spirit of the democracy of Pontotoc county, it would be marked propriety should a delegation attend this great ratification Friday evening.

Would it not be a good idea for those who contemplate attending the state fair during the week to so time their visit that they could conveniently join the multitude of Haskell defenders at this time?

The democracy of Pontotoc county has already attested its faith in the integrity of the governor and its great sorrow for the extraordinary conduct of the president for proceeding in such an unworthy manner against its governor.

Some of Ada's leading democrats are advocating a delegation of an hundred and the big brass band to full in on Oklahoma City Friday, just to show the country, they said, that we are patriotic and justice loving people.

The president's newborn anxiety to raise a rousing campaign fund suggests that he is now convinced that the republican party needs something besides him.

RINARD, FLOYD AND SHORT.

Capable, Conscientious County Commissioners of Pontotoc County.

Honest, intelligent citizens, when they are thinking of changing locations, are always desirous of information concerning the character and intelligence of those who conduct the local and county government within the district in which they may propose to build a new home.

A study of the personnel of the local officers will not only afford one an intelligent conception of the general moral attributes of their constituencies, but as well will indicate the measure of intelligence and economy with which official transactions are performed.

Decidedly, the most important officers within a county from economic standpoint are the county commissioners. Careful and honest party's are always careful to select capable and honorable men, therefore, it was of consistent occurrence, when three highly honorable and efficient citizens of Pontotoc county were entrusted through the duties of the board of county commissioners with the control of the financial business of Pontotoc county.

John D. Rinard, chairman; G. M. Short and C. W. Floyd are the efficient county commissioners of Pontotoc county. These gentlemen have to their credit the construction of a northeast and southwest and southeast and northwest public highways through the length of the county with their diagonal intersections at Ada, and the connection thereto of county roads through the principal towns to the central markets and the building of twenty-one bridges, two of which are of steel and the general economical administration of the financial affairs of the county.

The fact that practically one hundred miles of superior railroad trackage traverses the county, the fact that some of the largest manufacturing industries are located within its boundaries, all of which are called upon to pay an equitable and proportionate tax for the support of our government, taken together with the economic conduct of the financial affairs of this county, affords the reason that there is no county in the state with so low commensurate taxation requirements in proportion to its internal public improvements and conveniences.

The county of Pontotoc is truly under obligations to its county commissioners who are conscientiously meeting the requirements of the vast amount of labor they are called upon to perform in the attendant duties of organizing and directing the affairs of a new county government.

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE."

Appeal to Democrats for Bryan and Kern Campaign Fund, from the Democratic National Committee.

There are no secrets in this campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted, which requires any promise either express or implied, other than for honest, impartial government.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "swollen fortunes" by purchasing favors in the past with millions contributed to control elections, stand ready to give millions more for continued favors. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th 1909, "Let the People Rule."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

"Beware of the trusts bearing gifts."

That policy of the favored few buying a mortgage on the government meant that the candidate for president knew a few people only in an entire state.

Bryan says, "We will take the cause of people's rule home to the people in every county."

You can serve the grand cause of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's good; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves his country only for his country's goods.

Sincerely,

NORMAN E. MACK, Chm.

HERMAN RIDDER, Treas.

Send In Your Contributions.
In accordance with the above the Ada Banks will receive subscriptions to the National Campaign Fund and the Ada Daily and Weekly News urges all loyal democrats to send in their contributions. The banks will transmit them weekly to Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, who will issue to each contributor a beautifully executed acknowledgment printed in three colors as a souvenir of their devotion to the cause of Democracy and the principles of government by the people.

NOTE: Bryan's name will not appear on the official ballot. The only way to register your vote for him is a vote for the seven democratic candidates for presidential electors.

The only safe way to vote for the presidential electors and make sure your vote will count for Bryan is to stamp in the circle under the Rooster, thus voting a straight democratic ticket.

An attempt to scratch your ticket and vote for some republican candidate is apt to result in your vote being thrown out entirely because of a mistake. We can't afford this year to take any chances. We want to make Bryan's majority in Oklahoma as large as possible, and in order to do that, every loyal democrat should place one mark in the circle under the rooster and stop right there. That votes the straight democratic ticket, and there can be no question about your vote being counted for Bryan.

While the supreme judges are nominated by districts, they are elected from the state at large, so every voter should vote for one supreme judge from each supreme court judicial district. However, if you vote the straight democratic ticket by marking in the circle beneath the rooster your vote will count for the two candidates for supreme judge. One stamp in the circle under the rooster is all that is required to vote for every democratic nominee.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, raises nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissue, brings about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—asa general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.

XX Century Club Meets.

Another one of the XX Century Club's opening days is a thing of the past, but will live in the memory of those present as one of the most enjoyable of the many pleasant meetings they have held during the eight years of their organization. Mrs. H. W. Hardin extended the glad hand to the twenty-five members of this club at her home and made us feel it was good to meet once more and begin our year's study. There were also present, Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Weaver, Miss Garrett and Miss Harold, who assisted Mrs. Shanafelt in the musical program rendered and which was excellent throughout.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lefevre gave excellent readings and were heartily encored and responded in a most delightful manner.

A dainty salad course was served after the close of the musical and we reluctantly bid goodbye to our charming hostess and a pleasant afternoon.

A girl is ashamed to go to school these days she hetaoinshrduulu these days unless she has on something that cost more than her grandmother's education.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 58 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by G. M. Ramsey. 156-1mo

A Few Minutes With the Man Who Collects the Water Bill.

When you go to the city hall to pay your water bill and have a few words to say about the impossibility of your having used all the water for which you are charged, did you ever stop to think that the polite, accommodating gentleman on the other side of the window is compelled to listen to a constant stream of those kicks all day long? Did you ever stop to think that he hears the same old complaint from the time he gets down in the morning until he wearily goes home at night? Well, he does.

You may be annoyed because you have to stand in line a few minutes until two or three people ahead of you are disposed of.

But Wilburn Jones, the urbane man behind the window, sees that line before him all day long.

A woman walks in carrying several packages on her arm. In a minute it is her turn. She walks to the window, carefully arranges the bundles on the window sill, transfers her chatelaine bag from the left wrist to the right hand, opens the bag, takes out her purse, closes the bag and opens the purse. She's making fine progress you think. But, no, she opens the wrong apartment in the purse, closes that with a snap and opens another. Fingering around among receipts for blackberry jam, postage stamps and a sample of that lovely gingham, she finds a $5 bill. Fine. She takes out the bill, lays it on the counter, shuts the purse, opens the chatelaine, places the purse in the chatelaine, closes the chatelaine and then looks at the clerk as if to say: "Well, why don't you give me my change?"

The Same Old Kick.

"What's the name, please?" inquires Mr. Jones, with that smile that makes him one of the most popular men in town.

"O, to be sure," then another manipulation of chatelaine, purse and several apartments and she pulls out a postcard that has been bent and folded to fit a one by one and one-half inch space. Then it begins.

"Haven't you made a mistake?" she asks. "My bill is $1.41, and I know we used less water than we did last time. For John was away two months and I only did the lightest kind of housekeeping."

Mr. Jones reminds her that she thought to sprinkle the yard several times during the hot weather. Only half satisfied, she receives a receipt and 45 cents change. Now begins the final act. The chatelaine is opened, the purse taken out, the chatelaine closed, the purse opened and the 45 cents dropped in. Closing the purse, she opens the chatelaine and puts the purse in it. Then she is through.

It's that way all day long.

"We're getting off lucky this time," Mr. Jones started to say. "Very few kicks. The people are beginning to learn that we—"

"I wish you would please tell me why it is that I am sent a bill every month, when Mrs. Smith, who lives right across the street, only gets her's every three months?" an imperious voice asks. After the customary manipulation of bag and purse the postcard is produced.

Another Explanation.

"Well, you see, it's this way," Mr. Jones begins the explanation that he can repeat forward, backward or sideways. "You pay for 9,000 gallons of water in advance. You pay for 3,000 gallons a month for three months. You pay $3.45 for the 9,000 gallons. Now, if you use 10,000 gallons the first month, at the end of that first month we send you a bill for the difference between 9,000 gallons, which you have paid for, and the 10,000 gallons which you have used. In this case it is 1,000 gallons, or 30 cents worth of water. Then we have to send you a bill for the other two months in the quarter, too."

"O, I see," the woman says, looking as if she comprehended that the Persian pillars were carved in Acrophitic script.

Republican Candidate Encounters Opposition.

Butler, Ind., Oct. 6.—"Hurrah for Bryan!" was the greeting that Mr. Sherman was met with here, coming from the lips of a pretty young girl, whose eyes danced defiantly as she sent forth the challenge to the republican candidate for vice president.

"My dear young lady, you're not going to get left this morning, but you will in November," replied Mr. Sherman.

"You are the most courageous person I've met in my travels, and I congratulate you on the spirit you have. I like bravery in young ladies as well as in young men. Evidently you have been so misled that you believe Mr. Bryan has a chance and that such a chance would be good for the people, but it certainly would not. All of Mr. Bryan's predictions of either good or evil have materialized in what echo answers, 'What?'"

EXPERTS IN COAL MINES.

Making Study of Plans to Decrease Mine Accidents.

McAlester, Ok., Oct. 6.—In charge of Dr. Joseph Holmes and W. L. Manning of the geological survey, Carl Melsner, commissioner of commerce and labor of the German empire; M. Victor Watteyne of Brussels, inspector general of mining in Belgium; Captain Arthur Desborough, chief commissioner of explosives under King Edward, are here in a special car and are being shown through the mines of this district, for the purpose of studying more economic methods of mining and the use of explosives. They were tendered a banquet tonight.

On September 1 the commission left New York for the anthracite fields of Pennsylvania and Virginia. Then making a jump westward, the mines of Wyoming and Utah were examined. They then went to New Mexico and will go from here to Alabama and West Virginia. After the trip is finished the commission will spend some time in Washington preparing a report for the department of the interior.

The French coal mines they do not average one death in 1,000 per year, while in America the death rate averages four out of every 1,000 miners who go underground.

Congress having appropriated $150,000 for an investigation into the mines disasters of this country, it was decided to invite the leading foreign experts to make a trip thru the coal fields of this country and turn in a report on conditions.

THE DALLAS PREACHER.

Leading Texas Minister is Conducting Refusal for the Rev. White, Presbyterian Minister.

Rev. J. Frank Smith, D. D., of Dallas, Tex. is here and began a series of evangelistic services last evening at the Presbyterian church corner 15th and Townsend Dr. Smith preached an able sermon from the text, "The Harvest Truly is Plentiful, But the Laborers Are Few." His earnest appeals to the Christian people of Ada in behalf of those who are unsaved certainly met with a hearty response as was evidenced from keen interest in the services. He emphasized the fact that the reason why there were so many who are not Christians is because we who are Christians do not take the interest in them that we should.

Dr. Smith conducted services at the Desota this afternoon at 2:30. There was a large attendance and good interest manifested.

The services at the church will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m., and at the Desota at 2:30 p. m.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocer's everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderful satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute." too! No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Test it and see. Dr. Shoop created Health Coffee that the people might have a genuine coffee substitute, and one that would be thoroughly satisfying in every possible respect. Sold by R. S. Tobin. 156-1m

INDIAN GOVERNOR READS MESSAGE.

Recommends Sale of Surplus Lands Observing Treaty Rights.

Tuskahoma, Ok., Oct. 6.—Governor Green McCurtain of the Choctaw nation read his message to the Choctaw legislature today. He recommends an early settlement of all tribal matters with strict adherence to treaties, the sale of 2,000,000 of surplus lands, including the forest and the coal and asphalt reservations; opposes the reopening of the citizenship rolls and recommends that the Indian council pass upon certain applications for enrollment, and suggests that a commission composed of three members, two of whom shall be Indians, a Chickasaw and a Choctaw, be appointed to appraise and offer for sale the coal and asphalt lands.

The message concludes: "Since the last time you convened serious and important changes have come. Statehood, with its responsibilities and duties, is with us, and while it may take some time for many of our people to adapt themselves to the new customs and conditions which surround them, I express the hope that the Choctaw people will meet these new conditions in a manner befitting the history and traditions of a brave and courageous people."

IS ROOSEVELT TO STUMP?

Denials From White House Are Now Qualified.

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Roosevelt at present has no intention of taking the stump in behalf of Mr. Taft. It is the way in which persistent reports to the effect that he was to make a speaking tour in favor of the candidacy of the republican nominee are now denied at the White House.

The latest story on this subject is that received at Lincoln, Neb., yesterday by Mr. Bryan that the president intended taking the stump and was planning to make at least six speeches on a tour across the country, terminating at San Francisco. This information was said to have reached Mr. Bryan from persons in the East upon whom reliability could be placed.

The report is similar to that which Vice Chairman Hudspeth of the democratic campaign committee announced several weeks ago he had received. At that time the president personally was asked at Oyster Bay about the report, and he said he had not the least idea of taking the stump, and that he had not given the matter a thought.

Powder Trust.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The government will begin tomorrow to take testimony in the case against the "powder trust." William G. Mahaffey, appointed by Judge George Gray of Delaware special examiner to hear testimony, will sit at Wilmington tomorrow, and has notified both sides to be ready with witnesses. It is presumed that T. Coleman Dupont, head of the so-called powder trust, who recently was forced to resign his position as chairman of the speaker's committee of the republican national committee, will be one of the chief witnesses for the trust. The powder trust case promises to be the lengthiest ever heard. The record of testimony taken in the Standard Oil case, in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $29,400,000, contained 3,000,000 words. It is estimated in the powder trust case will contain 1,000,000 words.

It will require at least nine months to take the testimony before the case actually comes to trial.
